

Stellarium Intro

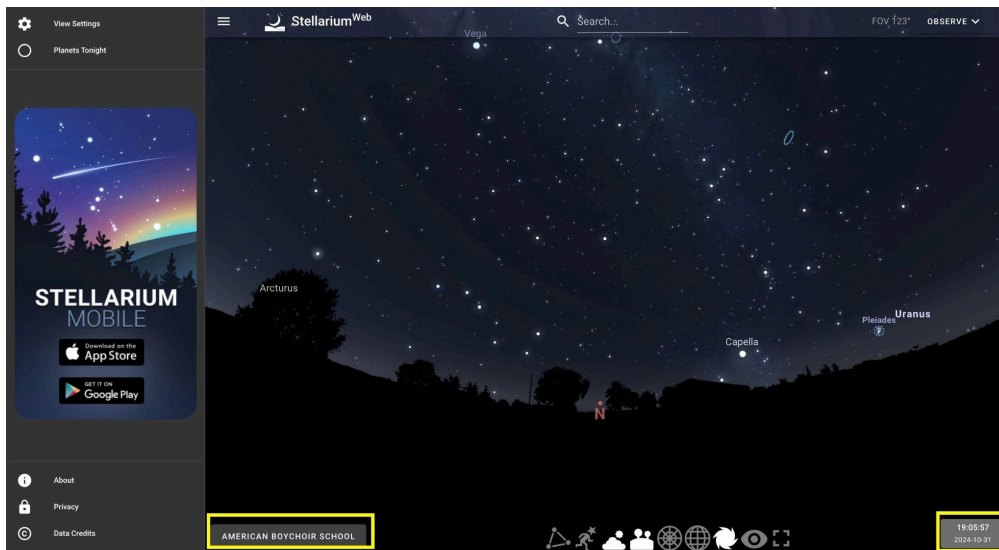

Find Your Stars

Probservatory

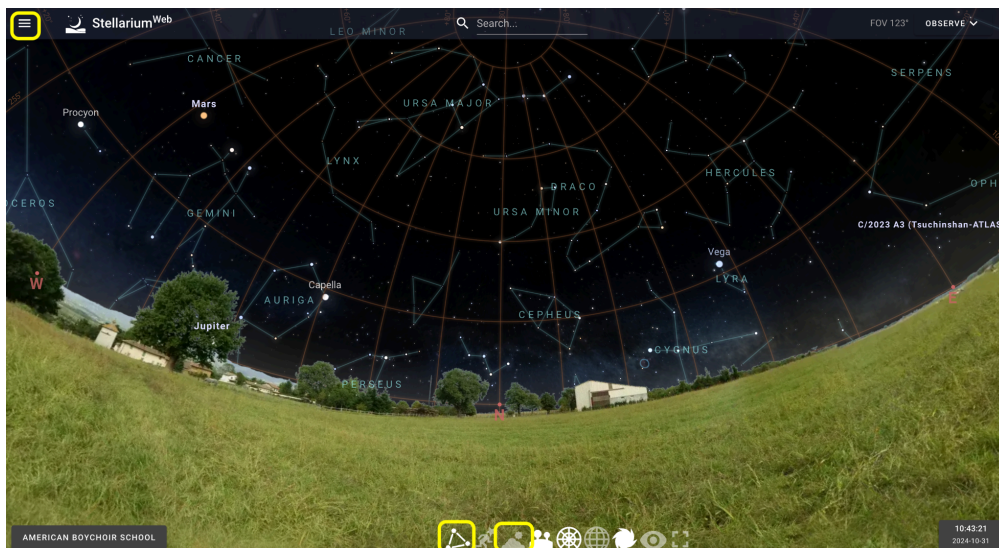

November, 2024

Steps to Find Your Star

1. Set your location and time as the telescope is
 - a. Open Stellarium
 - b. Change the bottom left location to “American Boychior School”
 - c. Click the time and set  icon to the current local time.

2. Set the Strellarium properties to help discover
 - a. Click the tabs to remove the atmosphere, show constellations, and remove the sidebar.

-
3. Start to find the star you want
 - a. Search across the sky and find the stars' name
 - b. Or search around and find the coordinates (in az/alt) of the star.
 4. Type in the az/alt or star name into the control panel in Probservatory.org

If you have any further questions, please send an email to telescope.prisms@gmail.com